

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Kathy Bentaieb

408-836-8093

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACGA CLAY & GLASS FESTIVAL IN PALO ALTO CELEBRATES 30 YEARS JULY 15-16

PALO ALTO, Calif. (June 25, 2023) – The prestigious 2023 ACGA Clay & Glass Festival in Palo Alto celebrates 30 years July 15-16, 2023, outside on the grounds of the Palo Alto Art Center, 1313 Newell Road.

“For 30 years, ACGA artists have brought their finest clay and glass creations to Palo Alto, and we are so appreciative of our customers’ past patronage,” said Mari Emori, ACGA Board President. “We invite everyone to come celebrate with us July 15 and 16 to see the latest works from our juried artists. It’s a great time to shop for home and family while supporting our California artists.”

Festival hours will be 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, July 15, and Sunday, July 16. Admission is free. Valet parking will be available for a fee. There will be live demos both days, and an interactive Clay for All activity in the Courtyard. There will also be food trucks.

See a sneak preview and a list of the participating artists at www.clayglassfestival.com.

About ACGA

The Association of Clay and Glass Artists of California (ACGA) is dedicated to establishing and maintaining high standards of craftsmanship and design in clay and glass. ACGA began as the Association of San Francisco Potters in 1945. We now have more than 300 members, including clay and glass artists, students, patrons and supporters, galleries, network organizations and corporate sponsors from throughout California. For details, visit www.acga.net.

CALENDAR LISTING:

Celebrating fine and functional art from more than 100 juried artists, the 30th annual ACGA Clay & Glass Festival will take place from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. July 15-16 at the Palo Alto Art Center, 1313 Newell Road. There will be live demos both days, and an interactive Clay for All activity in the Courtyard. Valet parking will be available, and there will be food trucks. Free admission. Details and participating artists at www.clayglassfestival.com.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

High-res images are available. Contact Festival Publicist Kathy Bentaieb at 408-836-8093 or kbentaieb@yahoo.com

###